COMMITTEES of the Mexican veterans submitted to Speaker Carlisle the names Townsend, of Illinois; Le Fevre, of Ohio; Holman, of Indiana, and Broadhead, of Missouri, with the statement that if either of them be appointed Chairman of the Committee of Pensions, he, in their opinion, would fully advance the interests of the veterans in the matter of pensions.

That the public schools do not exist for the special benefit of the book-makers is a proposition which will perhaps be considered unreasonable by those enterprising gentlemen. Their cost is at present a matter of widespread dissatisfaction, and the rapid multiplication of them is equally condemned.

The scarcity and high price of eggs of which many are now complaining is not chargeable to the hens, but to a "corner" in eggs made during the fall months by speculators buying up through the country and storing them for higher prices but it is now probable, that these same speculators will be glad to sell their stock at lower figures than actual cost. New York dealers are now handling eggs from Germany, several consignments having been received already, and it is now predicted eggs will be plentiful and cheap and that the stock stored in refrigerators will be put upon the market.

ADDRESS TO A CAT.

Sweet warbler, when the radiant moonlight falls In mellow splendor on the hallowed shed, Oh have I listened to thy plaintive wail, And cursed thee from my sleep-decked bed, How have I wept to hear thy long drawn sob,
"Maria! Maria! Maria! Comin' on-ont!" Why dost thou rage, vain cat, when sable night
Wide open freshness fills the silent air?
Why dost thou climb the roof to yell and fight,
And rip and spit and snort and claw and sneer?
Dost thou not blush, sweet cat, when rosy dawn Sees half thy fur clawed out, and one eye globe?

Masonic Banquet.

Thursday evening a most enjoyable banquet was held at the lodge room of Maysville Commandery No. 10, Knights Templar. Sir Knights from Carlisle, Millersburg, Covington and Lexington were present. Sir Knight Dr. Henderson, of the M. E. Church, South, made the welcoming address, after which all repaired to the banquet hall, where a bountiful supper was spread. The table seated about seventy-five or eighty persons, and literally groaned beneath its pile of luxuries. After blessing by Sir Knight Dr. Gould, everybody went in for the purpose of satisfying the inner man, and after that the second table was served. Even the orange groves of Florida and the islands of the sea furnished the guests with fruits, nuts and flowers. After supper the toasts were many and beautiful, and could you have heard the toast of Sir Knight Bassett, it would have carried you back to the days of Cicero. The toast of Sir Knight Gould was beautiful as a humming bird, and the toasts of Sir Knights Henderson and Boring were very enjoyable, and so it was with all toasts of the Sir Knights. The benediction of Sir Knight Henderson closed the feast. The music by the Maysville band was exquisitely rendered. The entertainment lacked only one thing to make it the most enjoyable of any banquet the writer ever attended, and that is the absence of fair ladies, the wives and daughters of the gulfant Sir Knights. There were no wines. Vox.

A Mound Opened.

Prof. Norris, the ethnologist, who had been examining the mounds in this section for several months, the other day opened the big mound on Col. B. H. Smith's farm, six or eight miles below here. This is the largest mound in the valley, and proved a rich store house. The mound is fifty feet high and they dug down to the bottom. It was evidently the burial place of a noted chief, who had been interred with unusual honors. At the bottom they found the bones of human beings measuring seven feet in length and nineteen inches across the shoulders. He was lying flat, and at either side, lying at an angle of about forty-five degrees, with their feet pointed towards the chief, were other men—on one side two and on the other lay another man, with his hands extended towards him and wearing two bracelets of copper. On each of the chief's wrists were six copper bracelets, while a looking glass of men lay at his shoulder, and his gorget of copper rested on his breast. Four copper bracelets were under his head, with an arrow in the center. A house twelve feet in diameter and ten feet high, with a ridge pole one foot in diameter had been erected over them and the whole covered by the dirt that had formed the mound. Each of the men buried there had been enclosed in a bark coffin.

British Events.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The hurricane Tuesday caused vessels to break adrift in the harbor at Belfast, South Shields, Portsmouth and elsewhere, and did much damage to shipping as well as to buildings in various cities in England and Ireland. Several persons were killed in the streets. The British ship Liverpool, from Quebec, for Greenock, went ashore during the gale, near Stranraer, Scotland. Out of her crew of twenty only two were saved. The Captain, Davidson, is believed to be among the lost. The vessel is almost a total wreck.

DUBLIN, Dec. 13.—During the trial of Elliott and others Wednesday for the murder of Mrs. Smyth an exciting scene occurred in the Court room. Mr. O'Brien, C. C., counsel for the Crown, called Mr. Boyd, C. C., of the prisoner's counsel, a coward. He was sternly rebuked by the presiding Judge, and compelled to retract his language.

The Faithless Anita.

VINCENNES, Ind., Dec. 13.—Edwin W. P. Smith, United States Consul to Garthage, South America, was granted a divorce from his wife Anita on the grounds of abandonment. Anita is a Spanish Mexican of rare talent and beauty. Smith's attorney alleged during the trial that she was a woman of easy virtue and an adventurer. The ill-matched couple were married at San Francisco, at the residence of the English Consul in 1871. The divorce gives Anita $500 alimony and the charge of the children. Her attorney, were it not for a breach of professional honor, could give the world letters which would make one of the greatest sensations ever published. It is supposed that Consul Smith wrote them, and no doubt they contain his charges against her, which she did not deny to court.

The Matrimonial C. & K.

CLAYLAND, Dec. 13.—John Washington, the crank who has been turning Bt. Loup upside down by proposing to marry General Sherman's daughter, and who came to this city determined to make Miss Mollie Garfield, daughter of our late President, his bride, has been adjudged insane and handed over to the Sheriff, who will remove him to the Infirmary for Lunatics.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifling with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured. "In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute. "While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup. It seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, Mrs. EMMA GIBNEY." 150 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CHASE, Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN, Byhalia, Miss., April 15, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRADON, Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

the contract to Mr. J. W. Hinkle. A suit has been brought by Mr. Hinkle against Hodgson and the Safe and Lock Company, alleging that the latter failed to fulfill the contract and demanding $10,000 damages.

The East Kentucky News says: In an article which appeared in the issue of the 23rd of November we did great injustice to our venerable friend, Colonel Frank Owens, of course it was the carelessness of our "devil." We stated in said article that Col. Owens, of Maysville, Elder Pinkerton and Capt. Net-terent, of this place, went to Tygart to fish a spell, and that Col. Owens caught what the little boy shot at. Now that was a mistake, the Colonel caught the nicest string of fish ever hung on a willow.

T. B. PETERSON & Bros., Philadelphia, have in press and will issue in a few days a cheap edition of Mrs. Emma D. E. N.
Southworth's last and greatest work, "Ismael; or, in the Depths," (originally published in the "New York Ledger," under the name of "Self-Made; or, Out-of the Depths," proving itself to be the most popular story ever issued in that paper), in one large duodecimo volume of 718 pages, paper cover, with a portrait of Mrs. Southworth, and at the unprecedented low price of seventy-five cents a copy, making it the largest as well as the cheapest copyright novel ever issued in book form at such a low price, and at which rate it must command thousands of readers, for Mrs.
Southworth stands at the head of all female writers, and there is no American authoress whose writings receive such immediate and general circulation everywhere.

KALEDOSCOPICS.

Politics is the key note of true melancholy. Respecting the sentiments of the heart's purity.
Several modes of forgiveness: I forgive, but I'll never forget. The other, I'll try to forget, but I can never forget. This is sometimes a piece of true charity.

Idleness is the hardest labor of all. Everyone is happier for being employed, as physical occupation often diverts and gives rest mentally. Idleness is a calamitous luxury.
How many silly Americans, who jump out of the frying pan into the fire, by their mania for marrying foreign persons of empty titles. They marry a count to reign as a nobles, but they happen to marry one who the noble never had an account to his name.

Astronomers who are constantly studying the heavens ought to be perfect in their preparation for death. While their eyes raised heavenward how can they be otherwise wise than in union with the absorbing subject of contemplating the mysterious wonders of God.

A sunny disposition naturally springs from the point of a happy heart, whose glowing rays are capable of diffusing some of their own happiness, when they come in contact with a gloomy disposition, breaking through the portentous clouds, revealing a sunlight, which is the reflection of their own sunny countenances.

One redeeming feature of original people — they are blessed with common sense.
While the artificial creature, who is with the stars of their uncommon sense. Everything is inclined to tend towards false appearances. There is no solidity to be found in society, for it has been a corrupt it left its own tale by its hollow ring.

Where there is one lesson learned by window, there are fifty taught by the stern eyes of experience. Whether for often partakes of a rosy hue, while experience is wrapped in a cold, understanding storm, thus preparing one to meet with suitable equanimity for the various storms of this unsteady climate.

Who ever heard of an easy marriage.
Dowry follows the other like a flock of geese, which requires a captain to lead them in the face of the battle line to be crowned with victory or to meet with defeat. The result is something in the air, for it is like an epidemic. We only hope it won't prove disastrous to the youths suffering from this temporal fever.

Chromatography has become quite fashionable among our society belles, and the beautiful galle enjoy having their portraits in this fashion. The ladies who are in the with the glossy surface of oil, and a most pleasant effect. They find it to have their portraits in this fashion, and to be in the most intimate line of what is called a store for them. Be the prediction favorable or otherwise, coming from so fair a source it is worth a try. It is a most interesting and very helpful to the artist.

How often we hear women exclaim, "I wish I were a man," but the complaint is never returned by these lords of creation. As the holidays are drawing nigh the young ladies are seeking advice as to what suitable present they shall give their sweethearts. As one who was not long ago, remarked: "Now it was one of my own sex that was making it hard for me to get which would be beautiful and acceptable." For once, gentlemen, don't you wish you were of the fair sex?

Women of refined taste generally choose the quiet, subdued colors, which are in harmony with their true delicacy of feeling—like the low-scented violet they modestly shrink from attracting public notice. (An author once said that he loved to be in the company of those who were quiet and unob-trusive, and who would not draw the attention of the world to themselves. The modest woman is the true queen of the social circle, and she is the one who is the most valued and the most loved.)

There are some people so deficient in the penetration of human nature that they make themselves perfect idiots in the most obvious manner, and when you see them you wonder how they can be so stupid. They are the ones who are the most easily led and the most easily deceived.

What changes time reveals the years roll by. Once upon a time woman's occupation in the way of employment consisted in school teaching or the needle of the seamstress, she was compelled to resort to one or the other as a mode of earning her living.
But now, when the age there has been a vast change inaugurated in behalf of woman's sphere of usefulness, and women have proven themselves equal to men in their ability to fill offices, that were once only thought to be adapted to man's capacity. In the Treasury Department women are now employed, and in the customhouse and in the post office, and in the various departments of the government, and in the
